CLARENDON

VIRGINIA

T H E M E

"HISTORY," Carlyle tells us, "is a mighty drama enacted upon the theatre of time." Today one of the mightiest scenes of all ages is being staged before our very eyes. Lest we forget the significance of our nation's rise from utter despondence to an eternal hope, we have depicted throughout this book the idea of a New Deal for all.

FOREWORD

Fate! A parting and a forgetting? Never! The veil before the future is forever drawn, but when our paths in life have separated, then may we recall through the pages of this volume, the joyous past spent together at Washington-Lee.

A TOAST TO OUR SCHOOL DAYS

Here's to our good old school days
We've known so long a time,
With arithmetic and civics
So hard for all mankind.

To our childish joys and sorrows
That are buried in the past,
And to the hopes of future years
With no shadow overcast.

To our own true loves and losses
Our struggles, hopes and fears,
And to the path our feet shall tread
Throughout the coming years.

To the sacred friendship of school-mates
Whose warm handclasp we know,
In the morning of our lifetime
When we need that friendship so.

Better still, to teachers we've cherished
Through all these changing years,
Who have shared our trials and hardships
Our laughter and our tears.

To our future, a pleasant voyage,
Adown time's troubled stream
'Till through the darkening evening mists
The harbor lights shall gleam.

DORIS DAVIS.

CLASS OF FEBRUARY

EXCERPTS FROM A SENIOR'S DIARY

MARCH 1, 1930—

Hurrah! At last we're in Senior High School, but can you beat it, we can't even eat with them!

SEPTEMBER 17, 1930—

Back to school, or is it the same one? They're adding to it. Now the girls will have a gym of their own—maybe. This building proposition makes two shifts in classes. Some come from eight to twelve, and they get the afternoon off. However, those coming from one to four get a nice morning snooze. And see all the green little Freshies running around, but don't worry, they'll be taken down a peg or two.

OCTOBER 10, 1930—

Three cheers for the girls! An auxiliary has been organized, but as usual, we Freshies don't rate. A uniform and everything—with the duckiest, little capes. Just wait until I can join those ranks and keep time with our school band.

DECEMBER 12, 1930—

Shine, W-L, Shine—we're on the map at last, for we've won the football championship. And it wasn't such an easy task. Will we ever forget such gridiron kings as Goodwin, Mortimer, Clements, etc?

JANUARY 30, 1931—

Special! Extra! W-L beats sworn enemy, Alexandria, in basketball clash. Keep up the good work, boys!

FEBRUARY 2, 1931—

Present, past and flunked! Well, my dear Freshies, how do you like the two-hour exams instead of the usual one hour? Even some of the Seniors have that dying-calf-in-the-thunder-storm look, so don't take it too hard.

CLASS OF FEBRUARY

JUNE 8, 1931—

Gee, kids! It's time to cork up and float! And am I going to go to the ocean and cool off for the whole summer. See ya next year!

SEPTEMBER 5, 1931—

Ah, me! School again and we're a whole year higher. But I don't mind too much cause it is good to see the gang again. The first day was a mess as usual getting everything straightened out, but it finally came out all right. I ruined by best hose rushing to get enrolled in English with my pals. Oh, well! Such is life!

NOVEMBER 3, 1931

Election day and wonder of wonders—we get a holiday. Sweet essence of lilac! Are we going to celebrate!

NOVEMBER 19, 1931—

What's all this chatter about student government? I see posters everywhere, "Vote for Couch." Same thing.

NOVEMBER 20, 1931—

Well, Couch is elected and the student government gets down to brass tacks. Can't play hooky any more, boys!

MARCH 1, 1932—

This day marks the first show given by the cadet corps. With plays and drills, it was a huge success, but Mrs. Malott sure talked it up before hand. The money takes K-dets to Winchester. What a thrill!

MARCH 15, 1932—

The Cadet Corps goes to Winchester and cops first prize! And to think they were from good ole W-L. Not bad!

CLASS OF JUNE

JUNE 5, 1932—

Exams are over and another year gone. Time out until—I'll be seen' ya.

SEPTEMBER 14, 1932—

Together again—and to avoid confusion we're in the same homerooms as before. It's O. K. And even the classes scheduled for us. Somebody's been working hard. Industrious, I'd say!

DECEMBER 4, 1932—

Something new! Interscholastic class basketball, both boys and girls. What! First year off with a bang—Mr. Driver's homeroom taking championship for both boys and girls. And they even get their pictures in the annual!

DECEMBER 23, 1932—

Christmas holidays began at 12:30. Just a little more rest(?) And at least plenty to eat. Don't gain any more than ten pounds, girls, if you want to keep your "figger."

JANUARY 4, 1933—

Again we say "Back again." We seem to have borne up admirably, but the flies in the ointment are exams.

MARCH 4, 1933—

Cadets drill in Inaugural parade, and from all reports President Roosevelt was quite complimentary about our girls—that's showing 'em.

MAY 8, 1933—

We Juniors entertain the Seniors at a snappy May dance. And did we spend hours making those invitations! Don't ever ask me! Luminous lights! Ritzy rhythm! Lovely ladies! And did we have fun!

CLASS OF JUNE

JUNE 12, 1933—

Farewells are in order! Drop me a line—and don't forget!

SEPTEMBER 8, 1933—

This is our last year at W-L (I wonder) for we are Seniors. How many are left from the original gang? We seem to be growing up—a natural phenomenon children usually do. Everybody's "sityiated" now and yelling to each other in approved girlish fashion, "Did ya have a 'marvy' time?" "Adorable suit!" and "Oh, I met the darlinest boy—he's my latest," etc., etc. . . .

NOVEMBER 3, 1933—

Elmer, get down your fiddle and bow 'cause the 12-B's are goin' ter give a barn dance fer the Seniors.

DECEMBER 8, 1933—

Yes, sir! We need money for this BLUE AND GRAY and there's not a better way to get it than to give a dance. There were scads of people there, and if I didn't have my feet stepped on, I had my feet stepped on.

DECEMBER 19, 1933—

A real circus tonight except for the clowns! Wrestling, boxing and Faculty-Student basketball—maybe I'm wrong, there may have been humor (excuse it, teachers, please).

JANUARY 3, 1934—

Back from Christmas holidays and Congress convened today. We were taken to assembly to hear the President's message. If it weren't for our good, thoughtful parents and teachers we probably wouldn't even have heard two words. But they gave us amplifiers. Three rahs for the P.-T. A.!

CLASS OF JUNE

FEBRUARY 2, 1934—

Graduation night. The first in February for Washington-Lee. Some were shaking; some seemed glad; others sad to be through. But don't you worry, they'll be back. Couldn't do without a few P. G.'s.

FEBRUARY 6, 1933—

C. W. A.; P. W. A., etc. But it all sums up to a nice stadium and track for W-L. We don't get much benefit from it, but I'm glad for my children.

FEBRUARY 7, 1934—

Co-operation and teamwork! That's how! And we have the Northern Virginia basketball championship. Can't say we're not keeping up with the world!

FEBRUARY 19, 1934—

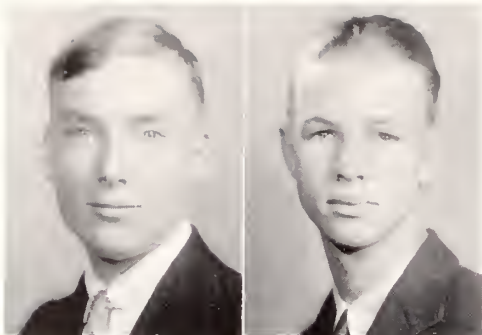

All this atrocious weather and it has been rumored we won't have track and baseball, and after the boys have been sprinting all winter through the halls to get limbered up. Maybe it will come out! O. K.

MARCH 16, 1934—

Whee-e-e! The annual dummy is on its way. The sun seems to have risen upon the countenances of the various members of the staff.

JUNE 20, 1934—

Graduation! Though our school days are ended, memories will linger on.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Superintendent Fletcher Kemp and the School Board saw the necessity of forging education a step ahead by placing a high school training within reach of every adult in Arlington County. The Night School was organized at Washington Lee in September, 1929.

The Night School Class of 1934 consists of fourteen members. A large percent of these men and women have completed their entire high school instruction at Washington Lee.

Many Night School students have won promotions in their daily work due to their training at Washington Lee. For five years this class has acted as one, always willing to help each other in their troubles and sorrows, and even willing to share the success and happiness of all. Because of their intellectual pursuits at this institution this group of fine men are now in a position to meet problems of life in a finer way. It is with greater confidence in successful attainments that they labor in the field of activity in which they are engaged.

The members of the Class of 1934 wish to thank the school board, Superintendent Kemp, and the faculty of Washington Lee Night School for their kindness and consideration during their stay here. They will always cherish and long for the happy nights spent at Washington Lee.

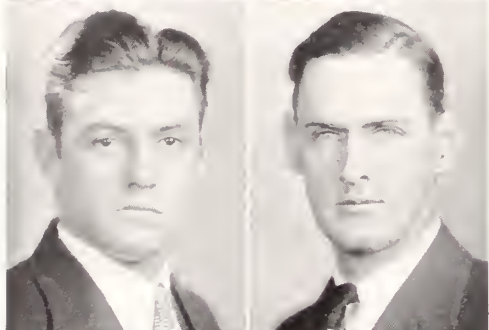

R. H. SANDERSON

March 10—You are keen mentally and possess keen insight into what makes the "wheels go 'round."

LOUIS SKILLMAN

January 21—You have a progressive nature with an excellent memory for faces and places.

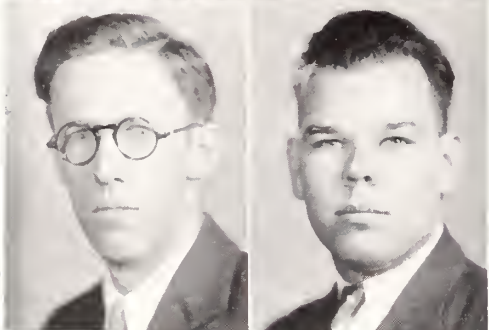

JAMES M. STRICKLAND

December 13—You are never fully understood because your inner thoughts are years ahead of present conceptions.

PAUL E. SULLIVAN

June 6—You are intuitive to a high degree, and this leads you along mental paths that few can follow.

ROBERT B. WALL

July 14—Your natural tendency is to be affectionate, kind, and hospitable; but this is greatly influenced by the mood of the moment.

CHARLES A. WOODZELL

October 10—You will cover a wide area in your travels through life, experiencing many changes.

FACULTY FOOLISHNESS

HOW WOULD THEY LOOK?

Mrs. Bell behind the wheel in an auto race.
Miss Allen with red hair and freckles.
Mrs. Corcoran in a short dress with hair ribbons on.
Mrs. Malott impersonating Mae West.
Mr. Driver playing football in gym shorts.
Mr. Christie painting every other brick in the school yellow.
Mr. McCord tall, dark, and handsome.
Miss Aldhizer riding a kiddy car and eating a lollypop.
Miss Alexander with a northern accent.
Mr. Lewter counting all of the window panes in the building.
Miss Turner making a scene in the movies with Clark Gable.
Mr. Lucas without his four fundamental processes of reasoning.
Mrs. Ransom driving home in a model T Ford after school.
Miss Harbaugh counting the stars on a cloudy night.
Miss Trott cutting out paper dolls for Mr. Williams.
Miss Orndoff adding up all the numbers of the lockers.
Mr. Richmond teaching the boys Domestic Science.
Miss Wheeler dressed in purple and yellow striped overalls.
Mr. Richardson playing tiddly-winks on the gym floor.

Mr. Driver was once asked to have his picture taken. He gave the very polite refusal that there was snow on the ground, the boys were throwing snowballs, and his mother had told him not to go out and get his feet wet. Now, now, Mr. Driver.

Mrs. Malott—"Johnny, the essay you handed in this morning is the poorest in a long time."

Johnny Ours—"Aw, don't be too disappointed. Dad had had a hard day at the office."

Deputy surveying fisherman—See that sign five dollars fine for fishing?

Mr. Vanderslice (witty fisherman)—I am not fishing, I am just teaching my worms how to swim.

Deputy—Let's see your worms.

Mr. Vanderslice—Here they are.

Deputy—That's five dollars more for letting your worms swim without bathing suits.

Mr. Williams—What three words are used most by students?

Jack Carrington—I don't know.

Mr. Williams—Correct for once.

Kathleen Smith (on patrol)—"I think some students have broken out."

Mrs. Corcoran—"Have you reported them?"

K. S.—"No, I got the doctor. I think it's the measles."

Have you heard about the absent-minded teacher who jumped from an airplane and didn't open the parachute because it wasn't raining?

Mr. Christie was a chemist—

But now he is no more,

For what he thought was H_2O

Was H_2SO_4 .

SENIOR SARCASM

Walter Cullen, when asked the following question: "If you were traveling through the country remote from an inn or hotel and was obliged to put up at the only available shelter, a nudist camp, would you appear at the dinner table without your coat?" hesitatingly answered. "Well, yes, and no."

Courtney Hood was asked the following question: "If you had the ability to sing, and Admiral Byrd should invite you to go to the Antarctic region on his next voyage to entertain the penguins, what three songs would you be prepared to sing?" Mr. Hood modestly replied, "Turn On the Heat," "In the Good Old Summer Time," and "Throw Another Log on the Fire."

Marie Kemon, when asked the following question: "If you were riding in an aeroplane and the pilot informed you that on account of an emergency it would be necessary to leave the plane, but as there was only one parachute you and the other passenger would have to flip a coin to see who got the parachute and you suddenly remember that you left your rabbit foot at home, what would you do?" answered by saying that she would go home and get the rabbit's foot.

The waiter laughed when I spoke to him in French.
No wonder, it was your old French professor.

Dan Dugan (after a hot discussion)—"When the doctors disagree, what are you going to do?"

Albert Betts—"Call the undertaker."

Kathryn Williams—Believe me, I pick my friends.

Sibyl Moffet—Yes, to pieces.

Robert Hall—"I suppose the next thing you'll want is the world with a fence around it."

Marjorie Ladd—"You don't have to bother about the fence."

Johnny Kaminsky—"I'm thinking of asking some girl to marry me. What do you think of the idea?"

Eileen Brooks—"It's a great idea, if you ask me."

Robert's Mother—I hope you were quiet in school today, dear.

Robert Thomas—Yes, Mother, I went to sleep this morning and the teacher said she would whip the boy who woke me up.

Wesley—"For the last time I ask you for that 50 cents."

Amos—"Thank goodness, that's over with."

Census-taker—"What do you do?"

Eliabeth C.—"I keep house, scrub, scour, bake, wash dishes, cook, do the laundry, iron and sew."

Census-taker (writing)—"Housewife—no occupation."

Words fail me, sighed the commercial student, as he failed his spelling exam.

To meet—to know—to love
And then to part,
Is the sad fate
Of many a heart.

—A SENIOR.

Mrs. Malott: Name thirteen of Shakespeare's plays.

George Brunner: "Twelve Nights in a Barroom" and "Macbeth."

"I hear Jones, the sea captain, is in hard luck. He married a girl and she ran away from him."

"Yes, he took her for a mate, but she was a skipper."

"Annie," called her mistress, "look, I can write my name in the dust on the piano."

"Sho' is great to have an education," replied the servant girl.

She hasn't got a Swanson neaux
Nor has she eyes like Clara Beaux
She doesn't wear expensive cleaux
But, boy, has she got these and theaux!

SENIOR PLAY

First Row—Bank Davies, Virginia Ball, Esther Stewart, James Cooper, Buck Goings.

THE SENIOR PLAY

After a great many plays had been read and considered, it was decided that "Cappy Ricks" would be given as the Senior play production for this year. Because of the number of Seniors who "tried out" for the play, and because of the variety of talent shown, it was with a great deal of difficulty that the following cast of characters was chosen:

Cappy Ricks	BUCK GOINGS
John Skinner	BANK DAVIES
Edward Singleton	JOHN ROBERTS
Matt Peasley	JAMES COOPER
Cecil Bernard	ALBERT BETTS
Brookfield	MORRIS McMAHON
Florence Ricks	ESTHER STEWART
Ellen Murray	VIRGINIA BALL
Lucy Ricks	CLARA DYSON

Others from the Senior Class who were chosen to help with the play were:

Business Managers	{ ROBERT BYRNES
	{ WILSON TOLFORD
Property Managers	{ ROBERT THOMAS
	{ JOE BELL
Stage Managers	{ VERNON SPATES
	{ PEGGY RUCKER
Costume Managers	{ MIRIAM KRESS
	{ BETTY W. STONE
Make-up	{ ELSIE MITCHELL
	{ STERLING KERR
Prompters	{ CHARLOTTE NEAL
	{ ADELE JOHNSON
	{ MORRIS McMAHON

The play was directed by Miss Aldhizer, assisted by Miss Turner.

The graduating class of February, 1935, is the smallest class in W.-L. H. S., and will be the second February class to have commencement exercises. The class has been well represented in basketball through Marcus, Dove, and Blake, and all have worked well for the team. Bob Blake also played on the football team. Not only has the 11B class been prominent in sports but it has also shown a good school spirit, always doing what it could for the interest of the school.

CLASS HISTORY

Back in September of 1931, a large group of young Freshmen entered Washington-Lee High School. They took their school work seriously and became noted for their high scholastic standing. However, all work and no play even makes a Freshman dull, and so they joined the various clubs, the cadets, and went out for the athletic teams.

One of the most notable accomplishments of the class that year was the leadership of a Freshman homeroom in the contest for raising library funds.

As time waits for no one, this celebrated Class of '35 entered the Sophomore Class. A group of harder working, harder playing students could not be found. Again they entered whole-heartedly into the school activities, this time distinguishing themselves in their different organizations. This successful year was climaxed by a member of the Sophomore Class winning the National Oratorical contest.

When the class, almost as a whole, became the Junior Class, they were a large group of experienced students. Many responsibilities were thrown on their shoulders. They accepted these without flinching or trying to evade them. They were courageous in the manner in which they faced the task of upholding the fine records common to the Junior Classes of Washington-Lee.

The Juniors of '34 are the Seniors of '35 and by the past records of the Class of '35, it appears as if Washington-Lee will have all its scholastic and athletic records broken by this talented group.

CLASS POEM

"WHEN MERCY SEASONS JUSTICE"

(Adopted from "The Merchant of Venice")

"The quality of mercy is not strained;
It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven
Upon the place beneath; it is twice bless'd
It blesseth him that gives and him that takes:
'Tis mightiest in the mightiest; it becomes
The throned monarch better than his crown;
His sceptre shows the force of temporal power,
The attribute to awe and majesty,
Wherein doth at the fear and dread of kings;
But mercy is above this scepter'd sway—
It is enthroned in the hearts of kings,
It is an attribute to God Himself;
And earthly power doth then show likest God's
When mercy seasons justice."

CLASS SONG

Tune: "You're Gonna Lose Your Gal"

*You're gonna know our class
When you see us pass.
We're a class that gets the prizes,
We are full of big surprises,
We're the champs in all the sizes—
You're gonna know our class!*

*You're out to see us step.
We have lots of pep.
When you see us passing by
With our banners flying high,
You will lose us with a sigh—
You're gonna know our class!*

HISTORY

The 10B class is organized into two divisions under the sponsorship of Miss Trott and Mr. Frack. The class colors are gray and maroon, and the class flower is the snap-dragon. In September, with the opening of the school session, very capable officers were elected who are still presiding. By this time the class is thoroughly acquainted with the school and feels that it is a part of it. Its members hope that they will be able to repay the school for the part it has played in the successful development of the class.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

On the storm tossed waves of the Freshman year, the ship of '36 flying the colors of red and tan set sail on its maiden voyage. It was laden with three hundred eager students and manned by five faithful instructors. The first year was spent on turbulent seas, but the crew gradually became accustomed to the opportunities of their new environment. The various sports aboard ship were interesting to all. There was football, hockey, swimming, basketball, baseball and track. These afforded many the opportunity of winning their monograms. During the summer of '33 our ship cast anchor at Vacation Island to refuel.

In the fall of that year the Autumnal winds filled the sails and under new leadership, flying the colors of blue and white, our ship set sail in calmer waters. Several of our crew fell overboard and lost their lives in the Sea of Matrimony. This year has shown the true spirit of the class of '36. We have won honors in hockey, football and basketball. The Sophomore Class is honored in having 1934-35 football activities. Not only are we well represented in athletics, but also in other activities such as the governing bodies, clubs, the band and orchestra, the newspaper and dramatics.

Now can be seen through the light mist the rolling hills of that tiny Vacation Island. The ship will soon dock, and those two hundred happy youths will be received by numerous natives of the isle. Sunny days, warm waters, cool breezes, moonlight nights, and summer flowers harmonize in songs of greeting. The warm sands of the beach also invite us to remain for a few months—a much too short time.

The setting sun lingers in the western heavens regretting to leave such a carefree scene, but the evening brings bright stars and a mellow moon to guide the guests at night. Finally the glowing light from camp fires dies, and the island is lulled to sleep by the song of the moonlight waves on the deserted beach and summer breezes whispering through the trees.

HASH AND MORE HASH

We're the lowly freshmen, maybe soon we'll pass,
To be the haughty sophomores, they say the hardest class.
As fighting striving juniors, we'll hold our standards high.
Some may hold great honors—others lowly lie.

But through the years we'll struggle trying to carve careers.
To be seniors, upper classmen, possessors of these years.
Some will be dropped by the wayside, others will struggle through strife.
But to wear the "Green and the White" that's our ambition in life.

TED ZIMMERMAN, '37.

WILL THESE '34 OFFICERS OF 1934 BE THESE PEOPLE IN 1960?

"FRESHMEN"

We are "Freshmen" one and all
And hope in '37 to be students of
W. L. at the last roll call.
With steady nerves and never tiring,
To reach the loftiest heights
Each one of us is heartily aspiring.

In '37 we will be Seniors
And with mingled joy and sadness,
Shall bid adieu to the Juniors.
We are on our way and striving steadily,
To obtain our diplomas which you may know
Will be accepted most readily.

In '37 with an encouraging smile,
A helpful hand and understanding heart,
We'll look back over that long, long mile,
And say to those who are "Freshmen" then,
"Keep tugging on with strength and will
For soon you'll all be Senior men."

JAMES ALEDRTON, '37.

Stanley Hess, when giving the qualities of an artist, said: "He must be able to draw his imagination."

Notice: "The students will have a holiday unless taking make-up exams."

Nit: "Say, who takes these make-up exams?"

Wit: "Oh, the girls day; they take take them on cosmetics."

In this reasoning on the part of a freshman?
wouldn't the study of a well-balanced meal be 'dietology?'

Miss Loving: "What is meant by 'overhead,' John?"

John Willis: "I don't know. That is certainly over my head."

Paul Brown was reading to an elderly lady when her daughter brought in a piece of cake and said: "Paul, you'll have to eat this between words."

"No, he replied, "I couldn't do that, but I'll eat it after-words."

COULD YOU IMAGINE?

MISS LOVING	Not teaching Vocational Civics
MISS ELLIOTT	Not giving "first aid"
MR. LUCAS	Saying, "Algebra is hard"
MISS RUFF	Not saying, "Huge big"
MISS BAKER	Not playing in the faculty game

WHO I'D LIKE TO BE

If I could be who I wanted to be,
I'd be just my plain self you see.
Qualities others possess may not be in me,
Still I'd want to be just plain me.
My reason for wanting to be is easy to see,
I can't be you and I can't be she, but I can be me.

Treasurer	VIRGINIA BALL

Fundamental changes both in student government and the Constitution have marked the school year of 1934-34.

Because of increased enrollment a different traffic control in the halls became necessary. As a consequence, the monitor system which proved to be very effective, was adopted.

During the month of October, Colonel McNeil took the officers of the Student Council to Rockville High School to make a survey of their student government which was modeled after that of the United States. Because of its great effectiveness it was attracting attention from Washington and the nearby suburbs.

Within the following fortnight an amendment to the Constitution was drawn up, changing the name of the Executive Council and Homeroom Council to the Senate and House of Representatives, respectively.

The amendment also gave authority to the President of the Student Association, John R. Beaman, to select a cabinet. The first secretariate was that of Public Safety to control the patrol system. Walter Bell was appointed and with the aid of Colonel McNeil immediately organized a better and more effective system of patrols.

These changes in the government necessitated the addition of several articles to the Constitution. As a result there was a general movement for a new Constitution, so after several weeks a new one was drawn up and presented to the Senate and House of Representatives on March 16, 1934. It was passed unanimously by both houses.

This new Constitution is certain to prove a great aid to the future governing bodies of the Washington-Lee High School.

THE CADET CORPS

In April, 1933, the Corps was invited to and accepted the invitation to participate in the Tenth Annual Apple Blossom Festival at Winchester, Virginia.

During the first week of June, 1933, a competitive drill was held at the school to determine the best company and platoon in the battalion. Company "A" won the company drill which gave Company "A" the honor of having the best company and platoon in the battalion.

Early in October of 1933 directly after the Corps was organized, a detail attended the Piedmont Dairy Festival at Manassas, Virginia.

On Armistice Day, November 11, 1933, the Corps received an invitation to participate in the parade and for a platoon from both "A" and "B" Companies to give an exhibition and competitive drill on the main street of Clarendon. The platoon from Company "B" was commanded by Captain Goings. Captain Bell commanded the platoon from "A" Company. Both platoons put on a good exhibition, but the platoon from Company "A" excelled, and won the competitive part of the drill.

Besides the regular drill all members of the Junior and Senior classes attend Military Science Class once a week. In this class new commands and movements are learned which are used at drill. Also Colonel McNeill teaches manoeuvres and commands, and such things as relate to the Army of the United States in time of peace and war.

The Cadet Corps is greatly increasing in number due to the interest created by the high standing of the Corps. This standing is maintained and gradually raised through the efforts of the Commandant, Colonel C. S. McNeill, and his officers, and the loyal co-operation of the members of the Corps.

THE GIRLS' AUXILIARY

The Girls' Auxiliary, under the able direction of Major Kirchner and Sponsor Williams, is now embarked on its fourth year.

At the present time, there are one hundred and thirty-one full-fledged members who compose the two companies with two platoons each.

At the beginning of the year, the uniforms were changed into a more suitable uniform than those of the past three years. The girls now wear heavy blue skirts, capes, and gray sweaters.

On September 30 two platoons participated in the annual Piedmont Dairy Festival held at Manassas, Virginia, where they received favorable recognition. They also took an outstanding part in the Armistice Day parade held on November 11, at Clarendon.

Preparations are now being made for the third annual Cadet-Auxiliary show which will be given under the direction of Mrs. Mallott and Miss Williams. This show promises to be a very entertaining and novel production. It is one of the most important events in the Cadet-Auxiliary year. Besides being entertaining, it also helps defray the expenses of the Winchester trip in the spring. The Cadet Corps and auxiliary expect to take part in the Apple Blossom parade as they have done in the past.

Earnest in purpose
Reverent to God
Victorious over self
Ever dependable
Sincere at all times

BANG! The Senior High Girl Reserves of W-L started off their second year as hostesses to the Freshmen girls at a "Bar-X Round-Up." Following this successful start, our hobby committee entertained the club at a bowling party. Posters and speeches by our publicity committee and the work of our ever faithful social service committee helped to make more happiness around Thanksgiving time by increasing the gifts of the student body. Our girls made a fine showing among girls from the city schools as they presented a colorful portrayal of the Christmas customs and carols of Holland at one of our beloved club suppers. Following the supper, five of our girls acted as check girls at the annual dance. Our social service committee sponsored a school-wide doll and toy contest at Christmas time. Those which we received were very attractive and we sent them to the Welfare Board for distribution. One of the cold, breezy evenings in January found us skating merrily in front of the school. Afterwards our social committee served us with delightful refreshments. Eight of our girls were among those who were fortunate enough to be able to go with over a hundred girls from other G. R. clubs to New York in February.

One week later found us again dining at the "Y" where we celebrated the twentieth birthday of the founding of the Girl Reserves in Washington. In March we had a grand time working on yo-yo pillows and the program for assembly. A few of our girls were chosen to model in the spring fashion show presented at our March club supper. The first week in April found us in Barker Hall at the "Y" watching a fine performance of the operetta, "Snow-White and the Seven Little Dwarfs," in which several of our girls had parts. Our club joined with others in giving a Mothers' Day Tea and Recognition Service in May. Our year of work and pleasure wound up with a grand closing banquet in June.

The Romani Hodierni, or Romans of Today, meet every Tuesday to enjoy the lighter side of Latin. The programs vary from rather serious debates to games which provoke mirth as well as arouse keen competition. Plays in Latin or about the Romans present various phrases of ancient culture in an interesting form. Sometimes the clock is turned back and outstanding characters who lived long ago appear and reveal interesting secrets of cosmetic and culinary arts.

Many Latin songs popular since the Middle Ages have been learned, and several modern songs have been transposed into Latin.

The Spanish Club is unique in that a great many of its members have completed the High School Spanish course. Thus the members are "supposedly endowed" with a fluent Spanish vocabulary.

One of the many projects which has been undertaken has been to make a contact with every Spanish speaking country. This has been accomplished by each individual taking one of the countries. The club has been most fortunate in that it received about eighteen responses. Some of the "recuerdos" received were copies of Constitutions, flags, pamphlets, and stamps. The club is especially proud of the fact that it is a recipient of a letter signed by the U. S. Ambassador to Spain himself. The Secretary of the Spanish Embassy sent the club a copy of the Constitution of the new Republic and also suggested the motto for the club, "Tanto Monta, Monta Tanto." This motto is one of the oldest mottoes of Spain.

Our major project for the latter half of the year is the study of our neighbor, just across the Rio Grande, Mexico, especially the costumes of its home and school life, and the relationship between the United States and Mexico.

The club has an invitation to visit the Mexican Embassy and is planning a visit there, and also to the Pan American Building and finish the outing in true Spanish style with an "almuerzo espanol en el restaurant Madrillon."

The club colors, motto, and pin have been standardized so that in the future all members may have a common band of recognition.

The Debating and Oratory Club is holding high the Green and Silver in this, its third year of existence. Although the National Oratorical Contest has been discontinued through lack of funds, this branch of the club work has not been abandoned, and it is certain that this year would have been even more successful than the last. The debates held in the club are steadily increasing in excellence, and it is one of its goals to challenge and conquer other schools and clubs. The club is very fortunate in having Mrs. Ransom as its able sponsor.

SENIOR CLASS

CUTS EXPENSES

The graduating class of '34 has done something really unusual—it has cut expenses of all kinds "to the bone." For this bold act it deserves praise and credit, for the usual procedure is to spend first and figure it out last.

Early in December, the graduating class held a dance for the benefit of the Annual. The Senior Play was the middle of April, and the Banquet and Prom was held in June.

"This is one of the most capable classes," says Miss Allen,
"that we have ever had. It is most typical of American youth.
A great many of its members have talent; they are versatile. I think they will do more than their share to make this world a happy and a safe place."

Faculty Vs. Varsity

The big classic of the year was as usual, a big success. This was the Faculty-Varsity tournament.
In the first game the women faculty defeated the girls, but the second game was won by the students. The boys were victorious both times. Each game created a great deal of mirth and excitement on the part of the amused spectators.

SWEEPINGS

A sweeper went a-sweeping,
And he swept along the hall;
He swept the classrooms, corridors,
And cobwebs off the wall.
He used an inkpen for a brush;
He pushed it merrily;
He laughed with pride and called full loud
For all the world to see.

The Library Club which during the first term comprised students from the whole Senior high school, in this term takes members from only the eleventh and twelfth grades.

Its purposes, however, remain the same—to learn how a library "works," to help it give service, and to learn more about books and libraries in general.

The club is divided into the following committees: Finance; Publicity; Program; Recreation; and Bulletin Board. Each committee has its own duties, and meets weekly to discuss them.

HISTORY OF THE SCIENCE CLUB

The Washington-Lee Science Club was organized under the supervision of Mr. Christie, with an enrollment of 30 members. The officers were duly elected and a program was outlined. Reports and experiments are given by the members at each meeting.

When the students were given an opportunity, at mid-term, to change their clubs several new members entered the Science Club. The members have all subscribed to a small paper, published weekly, which brings out the latest scientific achievements. An even more active and interesting program for the present term is being put into execution. The increase in membership and the interest shown by the members, both old and new, is the most emphatic evidence of progress.

Serving others is serving God

The Se-Co Club has been organized for three years under the auspices of Miss Firebaugh and Miss Greenaway.

As this is one of the largest clubs, it was found necessary to divide the club. The First Division is under the direction of Miss Firebaugh. The Second Division is under the direction of Miss Greenaway.

Many interesting features have taken place during the year '33-'34, such as the Fashion Show—Domestic Art Demonstration—and entertaining readings by club members and sponsors.

The Industrial Arts Class, under the tutorship of Mr. L. G. Hamm, this year is composed of twenty-four members. As they have a room convenient to the shop they are always able to discuss the things of general interest to the group.

Mr. Hamm is endeavoring to teach the boys a general shop course instead of specializing on woodwork as they did in previous years. Among the subjects taught are: Architectural Drawing, Sheet Metal Developing, Blue Print making and reading, Wood making and finishing, Cabinet Work and Mechanical Drawing.

These boys meet the third period and activity period every day of the school week.

When one begins his work, he is expected to finish it in a workman-like manner, and either buy it or have someone else buy it, unless it is a project for the school.

The Senior Girls' Glee Club, the first club of Washington-Lee to be organized this term, has proved to be most active under the capable and efficient leadership of the director, Miss Florence Booker. The members have been faithful in living up to the goal which they set for themselves—careful performance in part singing, an extra afternoon rehearsal each week, numerous appearances in school and outside school, and membership in the Virginia Federation of Music Clubs.

Among the programs at which the Senior Girls' Glee Club appeared are those of the District Teachers' meeting held in the Washington-Lee auditorium October, 1933, Parent-Teacher meetings, Senior and Junior assemblies, February and June Commencement exercises, and those of the civic organizations of Clarendon.

During the Washington Post opera week in Washington in November, 1933, the club attended the performance of the opera, Carmen.

Edna Lawrence, one of the first sopranos of the glee club, entered a State voice contest put on by the National Association of Music Supervisors in Farmville in March. Winning there, she entered the Southern District Competition in Atlanta, Georgia. As one of the four representatives of the Southern District, she will compete at the National Finals in Chicago this April. Edna's voice is that of a coloratura soprano.

The Senior Girls' Glee Club feels that through the work accomplished during the year 1933-34 it has definitely grown in strength, enlarged its prestige, and enhanced its value to the school. It is anticipating much success for the school year 1934-35.

"WHOSE SWEET DUTY WAS BUT TO SING"

Due to the sincerity and application of its members, the Glee Club has developed this season a spirit which is promising for the growth and expansion of activities for this medium of expression. A quartet, composed of Brumback, True, Butler, and Kadell, entertained several local organizations. For the first time in the history of Commencement Seasons, the Boys' Glee Club will contribute to the entertainment program.

An intensive study in unison and part-singing has been made of various types of compositions, e.g., hymn, spiritual, folk-song, chorale, and ballad.

ATHLETIC ANTICS

Dolly Byrnes—Flossie, what's a football coach?

Flossie Harrison—The ambulance, I should imagine.

Mr. Frack (boxing instructor) after giving first lesson—"Now have you any questions you want to ask?"

Dick Strickler (beginner) dozed—"Yes, how much is your correspondence course?"

RULES GIVEN BY COACH DRIVER TO HIS TRACK CANDIDATES

1. Sleep with a pillow at your feet to make you light-footed.
2. To be a good sprinter start first and run as hard as you can.
3. To win a race always run faster than the others.
4. To get strong eat five cents worth of onions.
5. To get good wind go to church regularly.
6. To increase your speed run faster.
7. In pole-vaulting use an airship.
8. In making a dash use pen and ink.

W. - L. BASKETBALL

Gee, come on, make a basket, boys,
There is no time to lose!
Yes, show that team what you know, boys,
This is no time to choose.

Gee, come on, guard that forward, boys,
He'll take you on the sly,
Here's your opportunity, boys,
Don't let this chance slip by.

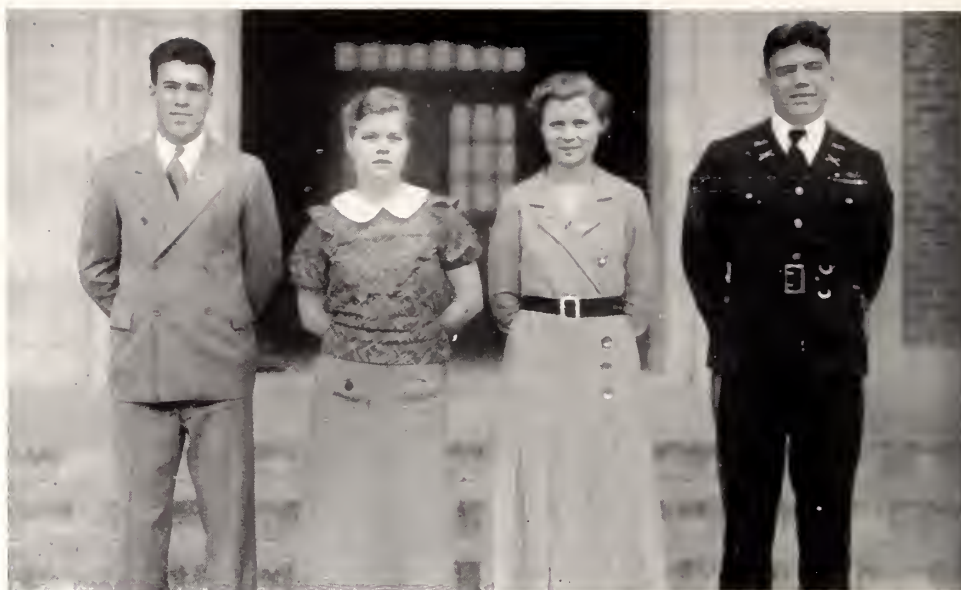

Oh, gee, that was a great play, boys,
You've added to your score,
Yes, that was a swell basket, boys,
Let's see you make some more.

Yes, sir, we are proud of you, boys,
You sure whitewashed that team,
Congratulations, from us, boys,
You've won our high esteem.
Yeah—team!
Rah!—Rah!—Rah!

THE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

President	JOE BELL
Vice-President	RICHARD STRICKLER
Secretary	VIVIAN BURROUGHS
Treasurer	DOLLY BYRNES
Athletic Director	MR. RICHARDSON

The election of officers of the Athletic Association was one of the first elections to take place at the beginning of the school term. The above officers were elected by the members of the association.

The Executive Board of the Athletic Association is composed of two members of the association, the athletic director, and the coach of the sport in season.

The Athletic Association is deeply indebted to Superintendent Kemp and to the School Board for providing the school with such an excellent athletic plant to begin next year's sports. We expect even greater things from the Athletic Association of the coming years as they have such fine facilities.

The drive for athletic tickets proved a success with a total of over 300 tickets sold.

The association has promoted noon dances which have been attended and supported by the high school students.

First Row—Dugan, Long, Dave, Bockhaus, Goings, Berry, O'Brian, Welsh, Strickler, Blake, Monroe, Carr.
Second Row—Swart, Puglise, Mortimer, Fixx, Tolford, Bell, Boswell, Shawan, Fields, Sher.

FOOTBALL — 1933

The Washington-Lee football team of 1933, led by Captain Cooley Berry, did not experience a successful season as far as winning games, but it was a scrappy team, scoring several moral victories. The schedule was the toughest ever undertaken by any W.-L. team.

A squad of twenty-four represented the Little Generals on the gridiron. Out of these sixteen won their monograms. The following are the ones awarded W.-L. letters: R. Strickler, R. Blake, C. Welch, E. O'Brian, B. Goings, C. Long, E. Bockhaus, F. Dove, S. Monroe, C. Berry (Capt.), E. Mortimer, and G. Brunner (Mgr.).

Coach O. L. Driver looks forward to an exceptionally successful season in 1934 as he will have more than half of the letter-men back. Eddie O'Brian, who holds down the center position, was elected captain of the 1934 team.

THE BASKETBALL TEAM

Washington-Lee turned out this year one of the best basketball teams in the history of this sport in the school. Through the capable leadership of their coach, Mr. J. C. Lewter, the boys worked and played not only to win honors and fame but for the experience and pleasure and have won the reputation of true sportsmen.

The captain of the team, John Kaminsky, has proven a successful leader and played his position of guard well. Lawrence Ball, a very good guard, was frequently alternated to the position of center. Edward Marcus, who was another guard, showed his ability in every game. Dundred Evers, who came to us from Englewood High school in Colorado, was a very good center. Joe Eaton, one of our outstanding forwards, showed his sportsmanship in tactful passing. Clayton Long, a forward, showed his ability in the games as well as fine sportsmanship. James Cooper, another new player for Washington-Lee, came from Nebraska. Cooper was the team's high scorer, seconded only by Captain Kaminsky.

The substitutes for Washington-Lee were John Ours, Ray Wheeler, Franklin Dove, Ward Boswell, and Bob Blake.

The hard schedule that was set up at the beginning of the season paved the way for the winning the Northern Virginia Championship.

Last year's schedule follows:

Washington and Lee	14;	Manassas	14
Washington and Lee	7;	Western	10
Washington and Lee	13;	Jefferson	2
Washington and Lee	0;	Alexandria	4
Washington and Lee	12;	Manassas	10
Washington and Lee	7;	Warrenton	6
Washington and Lee	6;	Central	17
Washington and Lee	14;	Lee-Jackson	13
Washington and Lee	5;	Western	8
Washington and Lee	5;	Fredericksburg	9
Washington and Lee	11;	Lee-Jackson	15
Washington and Lee	4;	Fredericksburg	3
Washington and Lee	7;	Alexandria	12

BASEBALL — 1933

Last year's baseball team was only mildly successful in winning games, taking five out of the thirteen played. However, the interest in the sport rose as shown by the large number which turned out for the first and second teams. Mr. Richardson was the team's new coach and he directed the team in big league fashion.

Our old rival, Alexandria, defeated us in two well-played games. The team avenged its first defeat with Fredericksburg by stopping a last-inning rally in the second game, to win by a score of 4 to 3 on home grounds. This game, and the one in which Washington and Lee defeated Warenton, 7 to 6, here, were the most thrilling of the season.

Coach Richardson had only three letter men from past seasons to work with but he formed a good nucleus from the material for this year's squad. Singhas and Dew were the star batteries. Tolford and Good were the batting stars, while Tolfard, Darr, Dew, and Good took fielding honors. Others to receive letters were Eaton, Fairfax, Wilson, Wallace, Captain Preston, Birch, and Copeland.

This year's squad will be made up of last year's veterans and other promising material from last year's second squad. It is believed there will be much more interest manifested with the new field and stadium, and the attendances will be larger due to the good seating facilities. The team will play more than twenty games this season.

TRACK — 1933

The track team of 1933 experienced a very successful season under the able direction of Coach O. L. Driver. The team entered in four meets. They were the victors in two which were dual meets; won second place in a tri-meet; and for the first time placed in the Maryland Inter-scholastic Meet. Clayton Long was Captain and Sidney Carroll was Manager.

In their annual classic with Alexandria, the Generals defeated the Twins by a score of 62 to 37. Brunner took high-point honors for the season, Captain Clayton Long ranking second.

Those who won letters were:

Clayton Lang (Capt.)	Vault—Discus
George Brunner	100-220-440-Yd. dashes
Elmo Legg	High jump—Javelin—Dashes
Otis Bunch	100-220-440-Yd. dashes
Richard Strickler	Weights
George Tyson	Dashes—High jump
Meade Palmer	Hurdles
Bank Davies	880-Yd. Run
Wesley Williams	440-880-Yd. Runs
John Kaminsky	Javelin
Edward Ricker	Javelin

Coach Driver is looking forward to a more successful season for 1934 as he has most of last year's men back this yer. George Brunner was elected Captain of the 1934 track team.

The W.-L. Club was organized at the beginning of the school year with sixteen enrolled. The purpose of the W.-L. Club is to see that the monogram given for athletic achievements is respected not only by those wearing it but also by the other students of the school.

The club has as its objective better sportsmanship in all athletic contests for the spectators as well as the participants.

It was agreed upon by the club that hereafter a boy shall be awarded only one letter a year and for additional honors receive stars.

MOTTO

Health plus ambition equals wealth

The Gym Leaders Club has a two-fold purpose. First, it develops sportsmanship, leadership, and self reliance in the boys by giving them responsibilities in the Gym Classes. They referee games and assist the instructor in teaching the fundamentals of games and athletics in their respective teams.

Second, the Gym Leaders have been a great help to the instructor. By their assistance, the large classes of 75 and 80 pupils have been divided into teams of 10 and 15, each team having a Gym Leader as captain.

CHEER LEADERS

More toward the organization of a good cheering section has been accomplished this year than ever before. Cooperation and hard work were the dominating features of this team; they took no active part in the atmosphere of the football games and other activities. It is hoped that a strong foundation has been established for the future cheering squads.

Come on, everybody, let's have a locomotive! Start out slow and make it loud!

A CHEER LEADER'S JOB

"Come on, get going you guys,
Let's have a lusty cheer
Can't ya see this game
Is toughest of the year."

"Stand up cheering section
Here's our team, lets greet 'em,
They've got it. With our support
No other team can beat 'em."

So on thru the game
He keeps up patiently,
Always on the job,
Cheering for victory

"Hey, come on and yell,
Can't you be a good sport?
Our team is losing,
And they need your support."

Now it's the finish.
Even tho the foes won,
The cheer leader can rest
For his bit is done.

He's carried them thru,
He regrets the loss,
But to support that team
Was first in his thoughts.

GENERAL LETTES

Girls' athletics advanced beyond all expectation this year. The girls who won letters last year organized the Girls' Monogram Club. The main objective accomplished by them this year was the working out of a definite point system for all phases of girls' sports. The officers elected are as follows:

President	CAROLYN KITCHENS
Vice-President	MARY DELL CROUCH
Secretary	FAITH BELL
Treasurer	BETTY KAY FOSTER

In the fall hockey, hiking, tumbling and swimming were organized under the direction of Misses Wheeler, Baker and Elliott. In hockey the interclass games were played, with the Sophomores winning the championship. Hiking and tumbling met weekly. The tumbling team participated in several public performances, including the Athletic Circus. The Swimming Club went each week to the Y. W. in Washington.

Winter saw the continuation of hiking, tumbling and swimming; and the beginning of basketball. The intramural games were held with Miss Allen's home room winning for the twelfth grade, Mrs. Ransom's for the eleventh, Miss Williams' for the tenth, and Mr. Lucas' for the ninth.

In the spring dancing and tennis were added to the sports. The school year closed with more girls than ever looking forward to the coming year and to earning W-L letters.
